

Taranaki's Economy: Past Present and Future

Venture Taranaki invites you to a new lunchtime speaker series on the Taranaki economy.

Looking at the past, present and potentially very bright future of the Taranaki regional economy, these three events will present the latest regional intelligence to anyone interested in the future of the province.

Presented by Venture Taranaki Chief Executive Stuart Trundle, these events will be of value to the strategic planning of any member of the Taranaki business, advisory, professional, community or leadership sectors.

All three events will be held at the Govett-Brewster Art Gallery. Events will begin at 12.00 noon for 12.15 start and finish at 1.00pm, with light lunch provided. The events are:

1 Taranaki:
A Decade of Change
Friday 9 July 2010
12.00 noon for 12.15 start
Finishing at 1.00pm

2 Taranaki:
Where are we now?
Friday 13 August 2010
12.00 noon for 12.15 start
Finishing at 1.00pm

3 Taranaki's Future:
Where to from here?
Friday 10 September 2010
12.00 noon for 12.15 start
Finishing at 1.00pm

Location: Govett-Brewster Art Gallery Theatre
Corner of King and Queen Streets, New Plymouth

How to register your attendance:

RSVP to Deborah at Venture Taranaki, tel 06 759 5150 or email deborah@venture.org.nz